

LONDON UPDATE – WEDNESDAY 24TH MAY 2018

The children spent the day doing water sports with paddle boarding being the most popular activity.

They had pasties and pie for their evening meal and then went outside to play games. By 9pm they were settled down for bed following such an active day

Today they headed off to the Natural History Museum and were all excited because they also had 'The Eye', river cruise and theatre to look forward to.