

LONDON UPDATE – THURSDAY 24TH MAY 2018

The children visited the London Eye and went on River Cruise along the Thames yesterday. Behaviour has been good and they all seem to be enjoying the activities planned.

All are eating well and sleeping well – although a few are getting up earlier than needed (must be the excitement !! 😊)

They finished with an evening trip to the Theatre to see Matilda, which they all thoroughly enjoyed.